both children that is equivalent to time period that mother had James/Luna at the soccer game. Father's selected time periods under this ruling may not coincide with school or extra-curricular activities.

The TRO granted on 8-29-18 is continued as a mutual temporary injunction (as modified by the Court).

The Court's previously ordered injunctions remain in place, including the injunction against enrolling James/Luna in new activities.

Amicus Attorney has final approval as to whether ~~James/Luna~~ a parent's proposed attire for James/Luna is consistent with child's historical presentation at an activity.
